

Environmental Leadership Training Course

For Leaders from Cape
Cod's Immigrant Communities

Learn about the important environmental issues on Cape Cod and make connections with local organizations.

Once a month, Thursdays, 9 am - 1 pm (includes networking lunch)
Free, thanks to funding from The Island Foundation

Sponsors: ESOL/ACCESS program at Cape Cod Community College
Cape Cod Immigrant Center
Waquoit Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve

April 30: The groundwater connection, organic gardening, ecological landscaping

Roberta Clark, Cape Cod Cooperative Extension, others to be announced
(Waquoit Bay Reserve, Falmouth)

May 28: Recycling/Environmental Health includes drinking water quality, household hazardous waste disposal, beach water quality, more.

Speakers include Mike Maguire from Cape Cod Cooperative Extension and Sue Rask from Barnstable County Department of Health and the Environment
(ACCESS Building, Main Street, Hyannis)

June 18: Coastal Ecology

Waquoit Bay Reserve staff
(Waquoit Bay Reserve, Falmouth)

July 23: Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy:

Kevin Galligan, Cape Light Compact, others
(Cape Cod Community College, Green Tech Building)

August 27: Making a Difference: How government works plus the outlook for green jobs

Officials from state, county and local government
(Waquoit Bay Reserve, Falmouth)

Application: To apply, contact Joan Muller, joan.muller@state.ma.us, or 508-457-0495 x107 or check website-www.waquoitbayreserve.org.
Deadline: April 15, 2009.

WAQUOIT BAY
NATIONAL ESTUARINE
RESEARCH
RESERVE

