

The panoramic photographs of Flat Pond show the vista that is seen from the dunes of the barrier beach near South Cape State Beach. To preserve these fragile elements of the pond's ecosystem and sustain the protection they provide from storm waves, the dune area is closed to foot traffic. This helps maintain the tranquility of the area. The biggest threat is from pesticides and fertilizers used on the neighboring golf course.

