

6TH ANNUAL
CAPE COASTAL CONFERENCE
DECEMBER 4-5, 2018

Lessons Learned From The 2018 Winter Storm Season

December 5, 2018

Sean M. O'Brien, Coordinator

Barnstable County Regional Emergency Planning Committee

The Storms of 2018

- January 4, 2018 (Grayson)
 - MACC Opened, Some power outages.
 - Coastal Flooding, Rain Snow Mix
 - Provincetown
- March 3, 2018 (Riley)
 - MACC Opened, Major Power Outages
 - Coastal Flooding, Sand Bags
 - Sheltering, 93 MPH gust!

The Storms of 2018

- March 7, 2018 (Quinn)
 - Rain Event, for Cape Cod, Monitored Coastal Flooding
- March 13, 2018 (Skylar)
 - MACC Opened, Major Power Outages
 - Coastal Flooding, Sand Bags
 - Sheltering, Worst of the season.
- March 21, 2018 (Toby)
 - MACC Opened, Monitored for resource requests.
 - Quiet Event

After Action 2018

- Center for Coastal Studies Modeling
 - Provincetown
 - Regional Grant
- Purchase of a Sand Bagging Machine
 - Only One on Cape
- Update of Shelter Program
 - Cape Cod Health Care
 - Revision of Shelter Plan

Contact Info

Sean M. O'Brien

Director, Emergency Preparedness Coordinator

Barnstable County

Department of Health and Environment

508-375-6618

sobrien@barnstablecounty.org